More About The Woodland Crochet Fox

The body of the crochet fox ami doll is worked from top-down, with the arms crocheted after and stitched to the body. The hat and tail is made as a separate piece and placed on the doll's head and the tail stitched to the back.

The colorways for this pattern are written as:

Oyster Heather or Camel Heather Yarn - Color A

Persimmon/Orange Yarn - Color B

White Yarn held together with lace white mohair yarn - Color C

Black Yarn - Color D

Graphite Heather - Color E

Since this is worked continuously, a ch 1 at the beginning of the round is not needed. It is helpful to place a stitch marker on the first stitch of each round.

When doing colorwork the yarn will be carried along the back in the fair isle style. Try not to carry a color for more than 3 sts so your floats aren't too long. You can catch/trap the yarn behind a stitch to keep the floats consistent. To read more about colorwork please visit: <https://brianakdesigns.com/ways-to-colorwork-in-crochet/>

VIDEO TUTORIAL

To see a similar ami construction, follow the Crochet Ami Deer Pattern Tutorial.

Special Stitches:

Cross stitch single crochet: this variation of a crochet stitch works the stitch tighter and creates an 'X' on the front of the stitch. To work a single crochet stitch this way, insert your hook into the stitch, yarn under, pull up a loop, yarn over, pull through both loops on the hook. This way of working the single crochet stitch is used for the hat and the body.

Magic Circle: Start by creating a loop with your yarn. The tail of the working yarn will be over the working end. Insert your hook into the loop from behind. Yarn over and pull through the loop. Ch 1, Work all of your indicated stitches into the loop. Pull the tail end of your yarn to close the loop. Pull firmly to fasten the loop closed, this end will be weaved in and fastened off.

sc2tog invisible decrease: Insert your hook into the flo of the next stitch, insert your hook into the flo of the next stitch, yarn over, pull up a loop, yarn over and complete stitch.

Finishing & Details

With Color E, stitch eyes on the front of the Fox doll's face on rnds 11-12. If shading is desired for the cheeks, use either make-up or pastels and a small brush and paint the powder onto the face of the doll. Use black yarn to stitch on 'V' lines on hat if desired. Weave in all ends and enjoy.

More About Briana K Designs

Hello, my fellow crafters!

I feel we are all natural-born artists nourishing our talents throughout our entire lives.

I've been fortunate enough to have found a home in the fiber arts community where my passions for crochet, knit, and cross stitch can grow.

I'm a Florida girl for over a decade, but I lived in the Rocky Mountains for my childhood. A place where I understood the value of warm hats and mittens. While I love nature and hiking, I've grown extremely fond of the sunny beaches.

If you have made an item using one of my patterns I would love to see it! Simply use the tag @brianakdesigns or #brianakdesigns
